SummerFest! is run by PACE Theatre Company Ltd., a non-profit making company and registered charity, SC020060.

Welcome...

TO SUMMERFEST! AYR 2009

w elcome to the South Ayrshire SummerFest! 2009 brochure for young people aged 5-18. The festival is organised and run by PACE Theatre Company, a non-profit making company and charity. PACE has over 21 years experience of working with young people and runs PACE Youth Theatre in Ayr and Paisley, the largest, and most successful of its kind in the UK.

2007 Production of 'High School Musical'

2008 Production of 'Sugar Rhapsody'

Most events in the festival involve participants attending 5-10 days of workshops and rehearsals in drama, music and movement, culminating in a public performance at the end of the week. All the events have been devised to guarantee an enjoyable, creative and memorable experience for those who take part, providing not only a fantastic opportunity to join the cast of a spectacular performance and work with a professional full-time production team, but also a rewarding and educational rehearsal experience.

Want to perform? Then don't miss it!

PERFORMANCES

Performances are open to anyone. Doors open 15mins prior to performances. You can book tickets for all performances any time from 20 June 2009 onwards.

HOW TO BOOK

You can book your place in any of the festival events or find our more information just by calling us on 0845 130 5218. Places on each event are strictly limited and allocated on first-come, first served basis. You can pay when booking your event, or alternatively reserve your event or tickets which we can hold for up to 3 days. Cancellations less than 2 weeks prior to the event are unfortunately non-refundable.
